

ESFM Feline Congress 2010 18-20 June, Amsterdam, Netherlands

Travel Information

For the smoothest, most stress-free route to Amsterdam, hop on the Eurostar from London's spectacular St Pancras International. It's easy to reach Amsterdam with Eurostar; simply change at Brussels and travel on to Amsterdam.

- Hello to 186mph: From St Pancras International, our home in the heart of London, the high-speed Eurostar will whisk you to Brussels Midi in a mere 1h 51.
- Change at Brussels Midi: You just need to change platforms at Brussels Midi. The typical journey time of 5h 5 from London allows time for you to change in Brussels, but this is intended as guidance only. We'll give you more precise times when you book your ticket.
- Ebbsfleet International: Located just a few minutes from Junction 2 of the M25 and the Bluewater shopping centre, this stunning new station in Kent is easily accessible for people all over the South East.
Journey times from Ebbsfleet International are approximately 10 minutes shorter than those from St Pancras International.
- Ashford International, Kent: We're also still running services to and from our other trusty Kent station, Ashford International.
Journey times from Ashford International are approximately 30 minutes shorter than those from St Pancras International.
- Brussels-Midi: Brussels-Midi is Eurostar's end destination in Brussels. It is one of Belgium's busiest train stations and the main hub for international train travel
